UNIQUE

Sofa Rolf Benz Contract 119

„We believe in the combination of tradition and modernity that Rolf Benz products embody – as part of our corporate identity, to create an environment for students that inspires them, offers a high standard of comfort and communicates values such as sustainability and quality to the tomorrow’s generation – values that echo throughout the rooms of BaseCamp Student.“

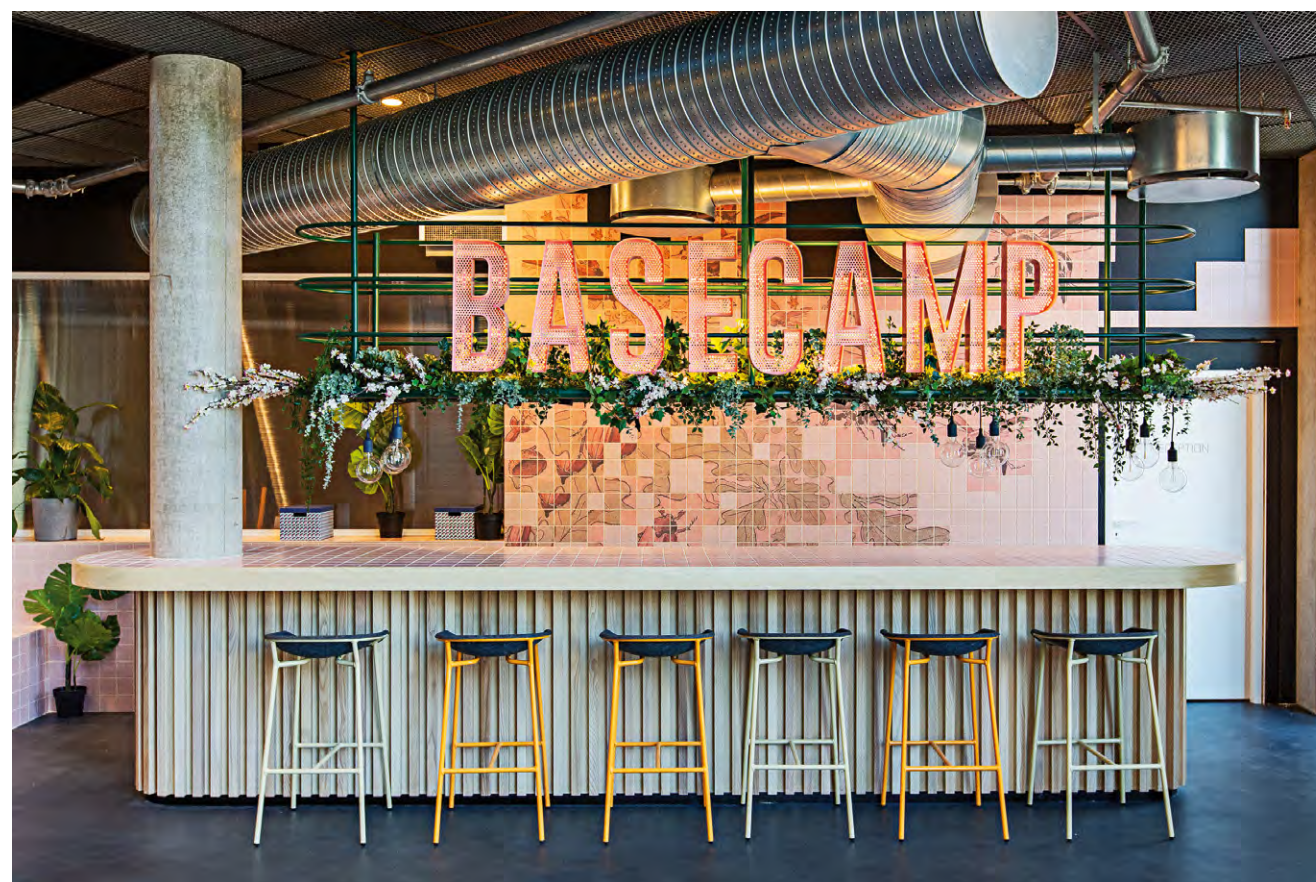

Fabiane Unger, Design Director of BaseCamp Student, Berlin

Just outside Copenhagen, between the idyllic Lyngby lake and the Technical University of Denmark, a little paradise awaits students. BaseCamp Lyngby is not just any student residence – as evidenced by spectacular amenities such as its own cinema in the building and a running track on the roof. The brand-new facility also sets standards in interior design with a cool, modern design. Whether it's concentrated study in your own room or socialising in the public areas: lounge furniture and tables from Rolf Benz create a feel-good atmosphere around the clock. The unique furniture was custom-designed especially for the BaseCamp project. And to ensure that the stylish furnishings not only look good today, but also tomorrow, the legendary high Rolf Benz quality from our factories in the northern Black Forest ensures that all pieces will stand up to the high demands of young, active guests for a long time.

WEL COME HOME

“Our wish was to furnish the prestigious architect’s villa in accordance with its modern design and high-quality fittings. In Rolf Benz, we found a partner who offers exclusive furnishings to make you feel good. So we were able to create a wonderful atmosphere in the house. From the first contact, we had the feeling that we fit together...”

Bed Rolf Benz TONDO

In its World of Living, WeberHaus demonstrates with this example just how much architectural skill the modern prefabricated construction method makes possible. The prestigious jewel by Nick Blunt shows over an area of 335m<sup>2</sup> that there are almost no limits to individual ideas, even with fast construction methods.

Sabine Ludwig from Geplan Design had the challenging task of continuing the unique, exclusive character of this dream house on the inside. She found in the sofas, tables and beds by Rolf Benz the perfect combination of contemporary language of form, exceptionally high-quality materials and top-quality craftsmanship that she demands for interior design.

HIGH LIGHTS

To those familiar with Greek mythology, Hyperion is known as the Titan of Light. Anyone entering the bar and restaurant area of the newly opened Hyperion Hotel Leipzig will notice that light has also been given a special role in the interior design. Here, an atmosphere has been created in which the many business travellers and visitors to the city steeped in history can enjoy their stay and rest to the fullest.

A great feeling to start and end a day with here in the prospering Saxon metropolis comes from furniture from Rolf Benz and freistil, which embellish their essential high functionality with superlative comfort and outstanding design. They, too, are bright spots – from the bar stools in the lounge to the occasional tables in the bedrooms to the armchairs in the hotel's conference area, which are as striking as they are comfortable.

„Rolf Benz offers finely crafted upholstery which also has a high recognition value among our customers and the guests in the hotel. Therefore, collaborating with Rolf Benz is important to us, especially on large hotel projects.“

LOOOONG STAY

The Stay KooooK in Bern is not a conventional hotel. Rather, it defines itself as a temporary home. You don't just stay overnight here – you live. There isn't even a lobby. But then, nobody misses it either. The room key is sent to you before you arrive and the so-called backyard serves as a meeting point, cooking space, lounge and hangout in one for encounters, spontaneous sessions or meetings.

In keeping with the philosophy of the establishment, the furnishings of the apartments and studios are of high quality without feeling formal. Appropriately selected and skilfully combined armchairs, chairs and tables from Rolf Benz and freistil give guests the pleasant feeling of living in a real temporary home.

“We are delighted that we were able to furnish our first Stay KooooK Hotel with furniture from Rolf Benz. Together, we have developed a triangular table with rounded sides especially for standard studios which works wonderfully for both working and eating in a small space. The close, constructive, mutually respectful and pleasant cooperation has shown that customised furniture solutions are also possible with Rolf Benz Contract.”

“For us as architects, design is what counts first and foremost. Clear lines and yet full of character. That’s exactly what we find at Rolf Benz, coupled with the individuality we desire in implementation and, last but not least, the great support from the Rolf Benz Contract team.”

TRADITION

Armchair Rolf Benz 562

Amrai is a traditional girl’s name in Montafon and the namesake for the hotel nestled amid a magnificent natural setting. Love for the homeland is also definitely on the agenda here. Architect Felix Schädler did not interpret it as Alpine kitsch, instead striking a fine balance of light and airy modernity and many material echoes of the region, such as sheep’s wool, copper and local timbers. This also benefits the guests, who relax here in the spa after excursions into the majestic mountains surrounding the area or enjoy classic Montafon cuisine. For the interior, the choice fell on a partner who could fulfil the establishment’s demand for high-quality materials and casual elegance in many ways. The furniture from Rolf Benz creates a well-balanced atmosphere between purist elegance and pure comfort in interaction with its surroundings.

CITY SERENE NITY

„On the one hand, with Rolf Benz, we enjoy individual freedom of design with high-class, international design, and on the other hand, top quality, manufactured regionally ‘just around the corner’. “

Cord Glantz, Interior Design at GEPLAN DESIGN, Stuttgart

English Garden, Marienplatz, BMW World or the Allianz Arena – the excellent location of the Residence Inn in Munich's Haidhausen district makes it easy for visitors to reach the most important parts and places of the Bavarian capital quickly and easily. As is well known, there are so many worthwhile destinations there that, for all Munich's composure, trying to fit everything in can be a bit of a headache. As a rule, this also applies to those who pursue more business-related goals here.

So guests are all the more grateful for the excellent facilities and comfort they can expect at the Residence Inn. With furniture from Rolf Benz, the feeling of being at home even sets in at the conference table. And it's here, if not long before, that you will also find the proverbial Munich serenity.

The traditional Hotel Zollernblick in the Black Forest was completely revamped in 2019 by Steffen Schillinger to create the Hotel Fritz Lauterbad. His concept, “Urban Soul meets Black Forest”, interpreted in architectural terms by archis from Karlsruhe, draws guests with high standards in terms of atmosphere and quality from all over the world. So it made perfect sense, not just from a geographical perspective, to bring Rolf Benz on board to supply the seating and lounge furniture – from the lobby, bar and restaurant to the rooms, suites and the conference room. The colours and materials draw inspiration from the surrounding landscape. The high quality and natural characteristics of the leather and fabrics are immediately apparent to visitors. The consistent mix of urban lifestyle and striking Black Forest elements has been crowned with the German Design Award 2020.

URBAN SOUL

“We share with Rolf Benz the fundamental belief of wanting to offer customers real value.”

Steffen Schillinger, Managing Director of Hotel Fritz Lauterbad, Freudenstadt

BLACK FOREST

The Rothaus brewery, founded in 1791, is Germany's highest, sitting at 1,000 metres above sea level. Its beer, featuring a fir tree and a Black Forest girl on the label, enjoys cult status among all age groups. Since the "Rothaus im Gerber" restaurant opened in July 2019, the popular atmosphere of the upper Black Forest has been recreated in the centre of Stuttgart thanks to the interior architects from blocher partners. In its ventures, Rothaus relies on the true value of another big brand from the Black Forest: Rolf Benz is the partner of choice when it comes to creating traditional hospitality with modern upholstered furniture and coffee tables. The natural materials and high-quality workmanship of the furniture match the brand's expectations perfectly.

BIG PLAY ER

“We create a space for emotions. And Rolf Benz brings emotion to that space.”

Jürgen Muth, Managing Director, Allianz Arena München Stadion GmbH

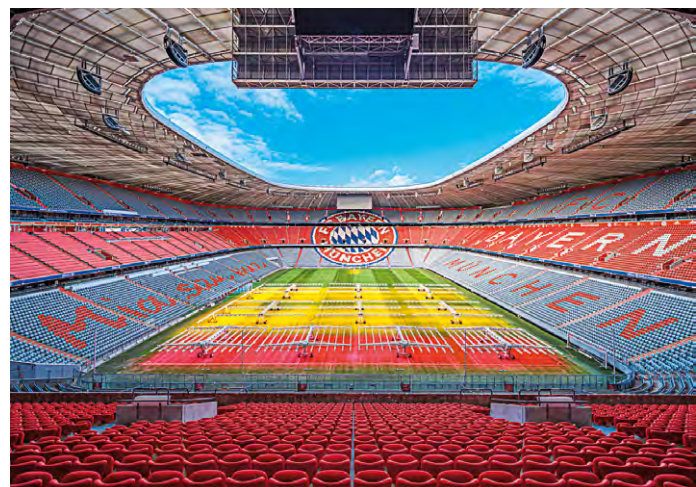

The major arenas of our modern day are architectural and logistical masterpieces. In the sporting world, they host numerous top-level events incorporating everything from entertainment and business to catering.

FC Bayern and FC Schalke 04 are highly professional marketers of their unique club atmosphere, and have their business areas, lounges and gourmet locations furnished by Rolf Benz. If desired, the embossing of the club crest in the leather leaves a lasting impression on visitors.

You don't have to be a zen master to find your inner core on this sofa: with its rectilinear design and geometric decorative seams, freistil 131 is the embodiment of pure relaxation. Fine armrests, narrow feet and a low back create lightness. Whether as a two- or three-seater, with a long chair or simply as a classic sofa, here is where relaxation and inspiration make great bedfellows.

The classic shell chair has a fresh look: Rolf Benz 600 with optional swivel function offers a diverse array of design options. Comfortable cushions, which are connected to the shell with press studs, ensure ergonomic seating comfort. It stands either on modern, sleek steel or classic yet elegant solid wood. It is the perfect chair for guests to while away the hours over long, relaxed dinners.

Rolf Benz 650

Design

With the elegant and extremely adaptable Rolf Benz 650 range of chairs, form and function go hand in hand. This is literally true, because the design is inspired by two intertwined hands. The wooden shells can, if wished, rest on a wooden frame with oval feet or a lightweight-looking, angled under-frame made from steel tubing.

Rolf Benz 640

Design

The timeless Rolf Benz 640 seat sculpture combines the generous comfort of an armchair with the fine aesthetics of a chair, enabling it to be positioned both at a table and on its own. The shell shape, with its discreet armrests, is accentuated with lovingly stitched decorative seams.

Rolf Benz 641

Design
This Weber & labsdesign

The Rolf Benz 641 hybrid chair/armchair combines the tried-and-tested design of the successful Rolf Benz 640 model with a new, trendy upholstery look and especially soft seating comfort. The striking fall of the folds gives it an especially laid-back touch. Thanks to the “mix & match” option, the inside and outside of the shell can be covered in different materials.

Rolf Benz 651 & 652

Design
Beck Design

Comfortable and lightweight, subtle and elegant: Rolf Benz 651 accomplishes the art of combining all of the essentials of perfect seating. The quilted seat cushion is a true work of art, since despite the soft upholstery, the chair looks wonderfully delicate and is the epitome of perfectly balanced design.

Fine legs and invitingly soft upholstery are the hallmarks of Rolf Benz 652. Above all, the comfortable upholstery shapes the character of the chair series, which was ideally dimensioned with regard to seat depth, seat height and back height, and thus adapts organically to the proportions of the body.

Rolf Benz 655

Design
Hoffmann / Kahleyss

With its fine lines, Rolf Benz 655 mirrors the style of the 1950s, fusing them with cutting-edge comfort. The Cacharel pleat in the back of the chair calls for the utmost craftsmanship precision. The outer cover can also be applied to the inside of the pleat, if required, while the inner cover can be selected in another colour as well.

Rolf Benz 629

Design
This Weber

Inspired by the middle of the last century, the Rolf Benz 629 impresses with its striking and warm design. Its elegant and carefully crafted legs in solid wood or metal impress too. Thanks to “mix & match”, the leather back shells and the fabric seat can be combined, or vice versa. Rolf Benz 629 is available as a chair or bench, and can of course be combined as an ensemble that looks as though it was made from a single piece.

Rolf Benz SINUS

Design

The Rolf Benz 935 table can be positioned against the wall as a standing table or sideboard or arranged in a classic free-standing position as the centre point of the room. No matter where it stands, it offers a stylish invitation to linger and, in combination with the Rolf Benz 650 bar stools, of course to sit.

Rolf Benz Contract 781

Whether it be for a solo breakfast, as a mini desk or as a friend for every occasion: the three-legged Rolf Benz Contract 781 wooden table inspires with its super-compact, amorphous design, fits into every corner and was developed especially for the Contract range from Rolf Benz. The frame and tabletop are available in natural oak, black oak or American walnut.

Rolf Benz Contract 782

A sturdy design in natural oak and three functional different versions: Rolf Benz Contract 782 is available as a round table, standing table and classic rectangular table – with the latter coming in two sizes with an end-to-end tabletop.

Rolf Benz Contract 782 is part of a collection that was designed exclusively for the Contract range from Rolf Benz.

On the tables and benches, the visibly elaborate craftsmanship details are the only decorative feature, such as the feet integrated into the top or the drawn-through transverse frames. The designs stand out beautifully from the monolithic heavyweights that are commonplace today. They show that solid wood and lightness are not mutually exclusive.

Rolf Benz 909, with its radii and craftsman-made frame, represents the archetypal design of a place for dining. On request it can be oval, round or angular. It can seat up to five people around it.

Rolf Benz 988

The Rolf Benz 988 is both a sculpture and a table. Its sensuous, biomorphic shapes contrast excitingly with clear lines. The table has an inimitable presence, while at the same time meeting the most diverse demands.
